Forward-Looking Statements

The information contained in this document includes forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act and Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, including Aviat's position for the future and expectations regarding anticipating cost savings and improvement initiatives. All statements, trend analyses and other information contained herein about the markets for the services and products of Aviat Networks and trends in revenue, as well as other statements identified by the use of forward-looking terminology, including "anticipate," "believe," "plan," "estimate," "expect," "goal," "will," "see," "continue," "delivering," "view," and "intend," or the negative of these terms or other similar expressions, constitute forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are based on estimates reflecting the current beliefs of the senior management of Aviat. These forward-looking statements involve a number of risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those suggested by the forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements should therefore be considered in light of various important factors, including those set forth in this document. Important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from estimates or projections contained in the forward-looking statements include the following:

- | material weaknesses identified in our system of internal control and associated remediation efforts and investments and other actions needed to remedy those material weaknesses;
- | continued price and margin erosion as a result of increased competition in the microwave transmission industry;
- | the impact of the volume, timing and customer, product and geographic mix of our product orders;
- | our ability to meet financial covenant requirements which could impact our liquidity;
- | our ability to meet projected new product development dates or anticipated cost reductions of new products;
- | our suppliers' inability to perform and deliver on time as a result of their financial condition, component shortages or other supply chain constraints;
- | customer acceptance of new products;
- | the ability of our subcontractors to timely perform;
- | continued weakness in the global economy affecting customer spending;
- | retention of our key personnel;
- | our ability to manage and maintain key customer relationships;
- | uncertain economic conditions in the telecommunications sector combined with operator and supplier consolidation;

- | the timing of our receipt of payment for products or services from our customers;
- | our failure to protect our intellectual property rights or defend against intellectual property infringement claims by others;
- | the results of restructuring efforts;
- | the effects of currency and interest rate risks; and
- | the impact of political turmoil in countries where we have significant business.

For more information regarding the risks and uncertainties for our business, see "Risk Factors" in our Form 10-K filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") on September 30, 2015 as well as other reports filed by Aviat Networks, Inc. with the SEC from time to time. Aviat Networks undertakes no obligation to update publicly any forward-looking statement for any reason, except as required by law, even as new information becomes available or other events occur in the future.
