

Harris Stratex Networks and Raylex mark 40-year milestone with strategic reseller agreement in Latin America

Partnership combines Harris Stratex' wireless transmission technology with Raylex' local systems expertise to supply key Latin America markets

SANTIAGO, CHILE – Sept. 9, 2009 – Harris Stratex Networks, Inc. (NASDAQ: HSTX), a leading provider of wireless solutions that enable the evolution of next-generation fixed and mobile broadband networks, today announced that its strategic reseller agreement and partnership with Raylex, a telecommunications systems integrator based in Santiago, Chile, has marked a 40-year milestone. Raylex, which recently celebrated its 42nd anniversary, is Harris Stratex' primary distributor in Chile. Based on the companies' relationship, which began in July 1969, Raylex represents Harris Stratex in various regional and vertical markets, with a primary focus in the telecommunications and energy sectors. Harald Braun, president and chief executive officer, at Harris Stratex, presented an award to Raylex at a ceremony held today at the company's headquarters in Santiago, Chile, in honor of the company's tenured partnership.

"We are truly proud to have reached this 40-year milestone with Raylex," Braun said at the ceremony. "Raylex has extensive experience serving the needs of large, sophisticated regional customers, including key carriers. Their seasoned and knowledgeable team; expertise and reputation in this geographic region; and commitment to delivering world-class customer support, make them an incredibly valuable ally as we continue to grow our presence in the territory."

"Harris Stratex provides leading-edge broadband wireless technology and turnkey solutions that provide our customers with reliable communications services," said Eduardo Middleton, president and chief executive officer, Raylex. "Through our partnership with Harris Stratex, we are able to offer a robust wireless portfolio of products and services that offer the highest standards of quality and reliability."

Having served the Chilean telecommunications marketplace for more than 40 years, Raylex provides first-class telecommunications services, particularly with its robust after-sales support program for its products and services. The company is proud of its achievements, particularly its high-level customer satisfaction as one of the market's top systems integrators. With its rich market history and outstanding technical capabilities, the company, together with Harris Stratex, is ready to address the forthcoming microwave market, and accelerate the convergence from voice to data applications.

Harris Stratex has an extensive presence in Latin America, providing specialized services and technical support for regional customers from its sector headquarters in Mexico, with satellite offices and key regional partners to serve the unique needs of each territory. Deep knowledge of the local market, as well as in-market services and technical support, has been a key factor in developing Harris Stratex' close relationships with its customers.
